THE NASBY LETTERS.

Mr. Nasby Suggests a Quick and Easy Method of Disposing of the Modocs.

[From the Toledo Blade.]
CONFEDRIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky),
May 6, 1873.

The greatest problem uv the day seems to be how to get the Modocs out uv the holes in the Lave Beds, so that they kin be regularly killed by the military forces uv the Yoonited States. Ez the Government has armed them rather better, ez a rule, than they have their own troops, and ez they decline to come out and fite by the regler tactics, the conundrum is a hard one.

Ez it seems to be certain that whoever goes out agin em gets killed, I wood sejest that the shortest way to endin the war wood be to compel the Indian and Army contractors to fite em. But I presume they wood object. They doubtless find it more profitable to furnish the soljers and the Indians. Ez a Kentucky Democrat, who hez never been reconstructed, and never will be, I wood be pleased to hev the tyrant Grant and the Cabinet wich assists him in the tyranny, go on this dooty, but I don't spose they will do it.

I hev, however, a sejestion for entrappin the wily savages, wich, with my yoosual generosity, I give the public gratis. I ask no reward, but of the Government hez a sense of gratitood the Government knows my address, wich is Confederit X Roads. Ef a reward is given me, I wood say, let it be in greenbacks. Medals are all well enuff for fucher generashuns, but medals will not buy likker for this generashun, and this generashun is the one I hev an espeshal interest in. Bascom don't recognize medals.

My idee is best illustrated by the narrashun uv a incident wich occurred at the Cross Roads, only last week, and wich sejested it.

The old citizens uv the Cross Roads, in a sportive mood a few weeks ago, made it tolerably warm for Pollock and a dozen or so niggers. They bustid in Pollock's house, and busted the heads uv every nigger they happened to meet in the streets. One uv em, I bleev, died from the injoories. Joe Bigler and Pollock determed to see ef ther wuz eny law in Kentucky to protect em, and to that end they made a complaint afore the Grand Joory, who, es a matter uv joke, indicted all the participants, wich includded Capt. McPelter, Elder Pennibacher, Deekin Pogram, Isaker Gavit and myself. Uv course the Joory hed no idea that we shood be arrested, but they wuz mistaken. The Judge and Sheriff hed ben over to the Corners, only a week afore, and hed a dispoot with Bascom about a bar bill, and they took the opportunity to gratify their spite. They came over with a strong possee to take the entire lot uv us, and expectin resistance, came armed.

We got notice uv their intenshun and determined that, no matter wat the result, we wood not submit to so outrageous an infringement uv our rites ez Kentuckians. We went to the Church—we took in with us our shot-guns and revolvers—we baricaded the doors and winders, and calmly awaited the comin of the minyuns uv the law.

They came—five uv em. Seein our posishun, the Sheriff with a white cloth on the ramrod uv his shot-gun approached, and demanded that we surrender.

"Never!" sed I. "We are armed to the teeth and wo be to yoo ef you attempt to take us. Go home, misguided man! The Corners never surrenders!"

He saw that we wuz all armed and went back for consultashen. We coodent hear wat they sed, but ther ackshens wuz omenus. They sat down afore our citadel to besiege us. They fired shots at us at intervals, wich we returned, tho no damage wuz done on either side.

The day wore away. We entered our fortress at 9 in the mornin, and at 11 we began to be anxious that the siege be raised. We hed neglected to pervide ourselves with pervishens, but we cared but little for that. We cood go without eatin a day or two, without trouble. But at 11 o'clock the terrible fact occurred to us that we hed't brot with us a drop uv whisky! not a drop. Ez we gazed out uv the winders we cood see the citizens uv the Corners flockin gally into Bascom's, and I cood, thro the open door uv the grocery, see Mrs. B. settin out the familyer bottle, and the drouthy souls asswagin there thirst. The site wuz maddenin. Within twenty rods uv sustenance and not a drop to be had! Outside the officers stood to vouchsafe our wuz arrest—and yet, how cood we stay?

But we resolved (and swore each to the other) that, likker or no likker, we wood resist the officers to the last—that ef they took us they wood take us ded! For men who hed not hed a drop for three hours—with a grosery in full site, almost within hearin uv the refreshin gurgle uv the flooid ez it gushed from the bottle's mouth, this wuz more than Spartan firmnis. Greece in her palmiest days never furnished heroes uv more sterner mould, and the Greeks uv the olden time were no slouches.

At half past twelve that venerable saint, Deekin Pogram, was nearly delirious, and down Elder Pennibacker's wan bloo cheeks teers chased each other in rapid succession.

"We kin die, Elder!" sed the Deekin.

"We kin—we kin!" responded the Elder.

At one o'clock, Joe Bigler jined the besiegin party. He talked a minnit or two with the Sheriff, and one uv the officers left. He went into Bascom's and in a minnit emerged with a jug. That jug he carried up to within ten rods uv the meetin-house, and sot it on a dry goods box, with a tumbler beside it. We watched the procedin with breathless interest. Joe Bigler with a piece uv chalk wrote, in bold letters, on that box:

"CORN WHISKEY—FREE!"

And the officers went back a few steps.

The Deekin looked at it, and a shudder shook his venerable frame.

"Parson," sed he, "I am an old man, and can't endoor privashuns as I wunst cood. I will venchur out to see ef we kin compromise with these crooel, crooel men!"

And the Deekin went. He reached the jug, poured out a refresher, and swallered it. That set wuz the demoralizashen uv the party. Pennibacker rushed out, Issaker Gavitt follered, Bascom follered him, and uv course I follered Bascom. We drank, and bein out uv our stronghold, wuz arrested, one by one, without trouble amid the jeers uv the officers. Above all rang the jeerin laff uv Bigler, who exultinly remarked that he knew that not one uv us cood resist the attrackshuns uv a jug marked "Free."

That nite we all slept in the jail at Secessionville, from which we only emerged on givin bail for our appearance at Court.

This wuz wat happened to us, and the way it happened. The Modocs, ef they are like other Injuns, hev as ardent affekshun for whiskey ez the average Cross Roader. Let the commandin officer post sharp shooters in front uv the sekret hidin places uv the noble red man. Let him roll out afore their hidin places, and within range uv the sharp-shooters, a barrel of new corn whiskey, and put on it an inscripshun in the Modoc language "Free!" Then ez they come out for it shoot em. A Cross Roader wood come out ef he wuz agoin to die the next minnit and I bleeve the Injun wood. I wood sejest, however, that they be allowed to take a good pull afore they are shot. Let us not be crooel. Let the noble red man die happy.

Ez I remarked, ef the Government is grateful for sejestions, and proposes to reward me for this simple method uv endin a costly war, my address is still at Confedrit Cross Roads, wich is in the State uv Kentucky.

(wich wuz Postmaster.)

OHIO ITEMS.

AN employe of the Rhodes Coal Company's mines named Ludes, was instantly killed at Massillon, on Thursday, by falling down a shaft, a distance of one hundred and thirty feet. His foot slipped as he was going down the shaft.

A FIRE broke out in James Grosner's bazaar at Mansfield, on Thursday morning and completely destroyed the stock of goods and for a time threatened the Miller House, but it was confined to the building in which it originated. The origin of the fire is unknown. Grosner's loss is estimated at $2,500 on goods.

A BRAKEMAN on the L. S. & T. L. Railroad, named H. L. Deeyodall, aged about thirty years, was thrown from a freight train and instantly killed at Massillon on Thursday. He was seen standing on a car just ahead a few minutes previous. It is not known how he fell under the train. His body was taken to Richmond, Ind., last night, where his family resides.

THE citizens of Canton were greatly excited Thursday over the attempt of a man, named John Dick, to violate the person of a child eight years of age, and threats of lynching are loudly uttered by the exasperated citizens. When the officers attempted to arrest Dick he made some show of resistance, but was finally induced to surrender himself, and was taken before the Mayor and committed to jail to await trial in default of the necessary amount of bail.

Letter from a School-Boy.

"MY DEAR GRANDMOTHER:—One of my elbows came through, but the women sewed it up again. I've used up both balls of my twine. And my white-handle knife—I guess it went through a hole in my pocket, that I didn't know of till after my knife was lost. My trowsers grow pretty short. But she says it's partly my legs getting long. I'm glad of that. And partly getting them wet. I stubbed my toe against a stump, and tumbled down and scraped a hole through the knee of my oldest pair. For it was very rotten cloth. I guess the hole is too crooked to have her sew it up again. She thinks a mouse ran up the leg, and knawed the hole my knife went through to get the crumbles in the pocket. I don't mean when they were on me, but hanging up. I did what you told me when I get wet. I hung my clothes around the kitchen stove on three chairs, but the cooking-girl, she flung them under the table. So now I go wrinkled, and the boys chase me to smooth out the wrinkles. I don't skip over any button-holes in the morning now, so my jacket comes out even. Why didn't you tell me I had a red head? They said they'd pull my hair if it weren't for burning their fingers. Dorry said he guessed my hair was tired of standing up, and wanted to lie down to rest. I wish you would please send me a new comb, for the large end of mine has got all but five of the teeth broken out, and the small end can't get through. I can't get it cut, because the barber has raised his price. Send quite a stout one. I have lost two of my pocket handkerchiefs, and another went up on Dorry's kite and blew away.

NEW YORK.

Alleged Defalcation of a Correspondent of a Leading Banking House—Police Commissioners Nominated—A New Phase in the Judge Wright Case—The Blatchford Poisoning Case—Schuetzen Festival—Work on the Parks Suspended—Vienna Exposition Frauds Exposed—A Jury Obtained in Train's Case.

NEW YORK, May 19, 1873.

Alleged Defalcation.

A morning journal speaks of a Mobile correspondent of a leading banking house of this city drawing prime sterling bills as having proved a defaulter to the extent of five hundred thousand dollars. The facts, which led to such exaggerated statements, have been known for nearly two weeks, and are that the firms of Halsey & Co., of New Orleans, Goldthwaite & Co., of Mobile, and Halsey & Goldthwaite, of Galveston, have dissolved partnership, W. F. Halsey alone being authorized to sign in liquidation. These firms represented the house of Brown Brothers & Co. in the cotton markets of the South. The trouble which caused the dissolution was that sterling bills against the cotton shipped to Liverpool had been purchased, and when the sale of cotton failed to meet the sums advanced and reclamation made, it proved that a majority of the bills were not responsible, and that Goldthwaite was jointly interested in the speculation. Goldthwaite is a relative of a member of the firm of Brown Brothers & Co., and his fall is more painful to the New York principals than any sum they lose, which cannot be more than a hundred thousand dollars.

A New Phase in the Judge Wright Case.

A new phase was developed in the Judge Wright case in the United States Court here today. His counsel, Stoughton and Burnett, made a motion to quash the indictment, which was argued by General Burnett. Should the motion prevail, it would defeat all the cases now pending here against Judge Wright. These cases are connected with the contest that has so long been going on between the Interior and Attorney General's Departments. The decision was reserved.

Vienna Exposition Frauds.

In an interview to-day J. Sutherland, a restaurateur, said about a year ago Gen. Van Buren called on him and offered him a good site in the Vienna Exposition building to open a first-class American restaurant, and told him he could make enormous profits, adding: "We will expect, of course, that you will do something for us in return for giving you such a good site." Sutherland answered that he could not accept the proposition.

The Blatchford Poisoning Case.

Dr. Harris, physician of the Blatchford family, says the six domestics of that family who were poisoned undoubtedly obtained poison in corned beef. It is supposed the butchers at the market where the beef was purchased used arsenic to kill rats, and some of it got spilled into the pickle which contained the beef. All the poisoned are recovering.

Gen. Fremont and the Memphis & El Paso Bonds.

Judge Black and Wayne McVeagh, counsel of Gen. Fremont in the case of the Memphis & El Paso bonds, will apply, it is reported, for a reversion of the proceedings of the French Court, in which Fremont was condemned by default.

Nomination for Police Commissioners.

Oliver Charlick, President of the Long Island Railroad Company, Hugh Gardner, Abram Duryea, and John R. Russell are the nominees for Police Commissioners, sent to the Board of Aldermen by Mayor Havemeyer.

Work on the Parks Suspended.

Work was suspended on the public parks in consequence of the failure of the Legislature to appropriate the necessary money to keep the laborers busy. Over 700 men are thus thrown out of employment.

The Defaulting Cashier in Court.

The case of Taintor, the defaulting cashier of the Atlantic Bank, was called in the United States Court to-day, and adjourned without taking testimony.

Bank Defaulters to be Tried.

President Graham, of the Walkill National Bank, will be tried on June 2d, and Taintor, the defaulting Cashier of the Atlantic National Bank, will be tried on May 26th.

Schuetzen Festival.

The grand opening festival of the New York Schuetzen Corps commenced this afternoon on Union Hill. The festival will last four days.

The Crispin's Strike Successful.

The Crispins claim they are entirely successful, only one shop holding out against them, and will discontinue their daily sessions.

Birthday Celebration.

The Fifth Regiment, originally called the Jefferson Guards, celebrated the birthday of Thos. Jefferson to-day by a parade.

Immigration.

Seven thousand eight hundred and fifty-two immigrants landed at Castle Garden to-day.

A Jury Obtained in Train's Case.

A jury in the Train case has been secured, and the trial begun to-day.

"QUAKER MEETING."

The Friends and Their Traits.

The Friends, both in numbers and moral force, weigh great weight, unestimated perhaps, but appreciable. The broad-brimmed, square-jawed Ephraim, and the dove-jawed Deborah, with her white hair parted smoothly over her wrinkled, placid, and still pink cheeks, who are sitting in solemn conclave in Philadelphia, exercise a religious, political, and social influence which is altogether wholesome. They have grown out of and above the type of their founder, George Fox. Age and custom having confirmed and approved them as a peculiar people, they will not squabble with you on points of doctrine, or split hairs of logic with regard to the virtue in a shad bellied coat of in the bad grammar of the plain language, as that venerable pioneer of their faith would probably have done. Their Christianity is in the eyes of men simple love to their brother man, and in the showing of that they have exhibited a strength and persistency and a quiet disregard of worldly consideration unsurpassed by any other Christian sect. You will seldom hear of the Friends' work, yet there is no reform in the country, from the public school system to the abolition of slavery, of which they have not been inaugurators. Our drab-coated friends, Isaac and Deborah, in fact, appear to be so exactly the opposite, in private and public, of the miserable follies and vices which are now degrading us as a people in the eyes of the world, that we are tempted to lift them up as examples to this untoward generation. The bane, the antidote are both before us. Are we braggarts? Here are stillness and modesty. Do we make a man a sham show of wealth and prosperity? Go into their plain brick dwelling on Arch street if you would know what reality is, from the welcome on the threshold to the dinner on the kitchen fire. Here is no plated pewter-ware, no sleazy silks, no cheap Brussels. Are we reckless in trading? Make a penny from Ephraim in a bargain, if you can. Do we squander, and drink, and gamble our way headlong to poverty? Who ever saw a begging Quaker? Are our belles forward and scheming in flirtation and match-making? Does the hare sometimes hunt the hounds? The daughters of Deborah wear not the plain garb, perhaps, but they are clothed upon with a wondrous modesty and self-respect. They are clear-eyed and clear-brained, and always able, if need be, to earn their own living by other modes than marriage. The lover who woos them will not pay homage as a carpet knight to a sham queenship, but as the first man to the unknown pure mystery of the first woman. Do we find free love and spiritual affinities necessary to solve the problem of marriage? Who has heard of a divorced Quaker? Or, to come to pettier matters (though just as vital), does the worthy housewife find her children nervous, her husband driven day after day to a restaurant for something to eat, chambermaids a perpetual thorn in her side, and cooks mere messengers of Satan sent to buffet her? Let her go into the noiseless nurseries of the Friend Deborah, through her spotless kitchen, and beholding the serene brows of mistress and maids, lay her hand upon her mouth and her mouth in the dust and be silent.

Our Friendly brethren in Philadelphia are about, we perceive, to give to the Indian problem their gravest consideration. We are tempted to wish that they would take all those other muddles of life which prove too much for us, and with their keen eyes and placid fingers set them to rights—now and forever.—N. Y. Tribune.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

The Revolution in Panama.

PANAMA, May 8.—Ex-President Carreoso arrived in Panama on the 5th from Costa Rica and the revolution has broken out afresh. The evening following the arrival of Carreoso he declared that the national troops acted treasonably by interfering in the late revolt which deposed Neira, and expressed his intention of disarming them and compelling them to leave the State.

At 2:30 P. M., on the 7th, fighting with shell and small arms commenced in the Plaza San Jose by the State troops advancing upon the national forces. After a fight of two hours the former were repulsed, ninety being captured. Both claim they attacked for safety. The fighting was continued with slight intermission until 9 P. M., when Carreoso wished the Consuls to arrange a plan for peace, but they refused to interfere.

The United States steamer Pensacola arrived during the afternoon, and foreigners are protected at the American consulate by fifty men from the Pensacola and Tuscarora, while one hundred and fifty men from the same ships guard the property of the Panama Railroad.

This morning firing was reopened and continued with slight intermission until one o'clock, when a truce was agreed upon. Captains Nerea and Mudersa, of the National forces, were killed and a Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel wounded. President Cervera is wounded. It is impossible to give the number of killed and wounded at this time. The residents who have not availed themselves of the men of war have fled the city, and are in the bushes.

President Neira, since his banishment, has issued an address to the National troops, calling upon them to maintain the dignity of the State. The trouble is now over. Col. Juan Pervet, the former Prefect of Colon, has been designated Provisional President until General Neira can be recalled.

FRANCE.

Meeting of the Assembly.

VERSAILLES, May 19.—The National Assembly met this afternoon. The Right Centre presented an interpellation asking for a thoroughly conservative cabinet, and demanding explanations from the Government of the recent changes in the Ministry.

The Assembly voted that debate on the interpellation be opened to morrow.

M. Dufaure, Minister of Justice, submitted constitutional bills organizing public powers and providing for the establishment of a Second Chamber.

Two test votes were taken during the sitting, which show that the parties in the Chamber are evenly balanced. The conservatives are well disciplined, resolute and fully prepared for the issue on cabinet and constitutional questions.

A motion made by the Extreme Left for the dissolution of the Assembly was voted down by a heavy majority and indefinitely postponed.

BOSTON.

The Property of the Forger, James A. Coe, Attached.

BOSTON, May 19.—Proceedings have been instituted in the United States Bankruptcy Court by Warren & Co., the largest sufferers by the forgeries of James A. Coe, against the estate of that individual. On Saturday a provisional warrant was issued for the attachment of the property, real and personal, of Coe. The warrant was served by United States Marshal Usher, who recovered a tin trunk, in which Coe kept his securities, and which he removed from the Union Safety Deposit vaults on the day that his frauds were discovered. The box was found in possession of Soyer and Welsh, attorneys for Elijah Smith, an intimate friend of Coe's, who asserts that he took charge of the box at the request of the owner. The nominal value of the contents of the box is estimated at between $120,000 and $130,000. Coe delivered up the key to the trunk; also the key to his box in the Safety Deposit vaults. Upon opening the package in the vaults it was found to contain seventeen $1,000 gold-bearing bonds of the Lake Shore, Louisville & Southwestern Railroad. The nominal value of the bonds and certificates thus far recovered is nearly $150,000. The creditors will meet and elect an assignee, and on Saturday next the case will come formally before the court.

Confessions of a Murderer.

HUDSON, N. Y., May 19.—Joseph Waltz, in his confession of having murdered Hulcher, a scissors-grinder, states that the deed was done at about 11 P. M., on the 1st of May. He went to the room occupied by Hulcher, whom he found asleep, and struck him three times with a hatchet, the first time with the blunt part and twice with the sharp side. He only groaned, and all was over. Waltz then took the body to the stone wall, where traces of blood were found, and covered it up. There he left it until the next night, when he took it down into the orchard and buried it. The officers, having learned all they could, took him out, at his own suggestion, to the place where the body was buried. A few inches below the surface the body was found, wrapped in a blanket. The head was horribly mangled.

Waltz also confesses to having burned three school houses in the town and buried the books, which have been found at the place he designated. When asked why he committed the murder, he replied, "I done it for mischief, and not for gain; the bad spirit was in me, and I wanted to do something bad."

AURORA, ILL.

The Fire on Sunday.

CHICAGO, May 19.—About three hundred men were thrown out of employment by the burning of several of the shops of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad at Aurora, Illinois, yesterday. All the extensive wood-working shops, the store house, the blacksmith shops and several contingent offices were totally destroyed, together with the greater part of their contents, the small tools and a few of the light pieces of machinery only being saved. In the paint shops there were two Pullman coaches, for the Kansas City and St. Joseph and the International Railroads. Another Pullman coach was on the outside without trucks. All were destroyed. There were also five passenger coaches, three new freight and two mail and express cars destroyed in the buildings. Eight loaded freight cars, a portion of the train for the west, standing on a side track, were also consumed. The stock of lumber was probably the largest and most valuable in the State, and is by far the largest portion of the loss, consisting largely of hard wood and clear pine, the selection of the past five years.

The buildings destroyed were the original wooden ones, none of the new stone buildings constructed in a thoroughly fire-proof manner being consumed. The machinery destroyed was of the most approved and modern make, and extremely valuable.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, May 19, 1873.

The Russian Mission Declined by Judge Pierrepont.

Judge Pierrepont, who arrived here yesterday morning, to-day called upon the President and Secretary of State, and informed them that he feels compelled to decline the Russian mission. It is understood that his chief reason is that to accept would compel too great a sacrifice of his business interests in this country, as, among other things, he would be compelled to resign his position as Treasurer and Counsel of the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company.

A Test Case Decided.

The Court of Claims to-day rendered judgment for some $500 in favor of retired Major General Eli Long, as commutation for fuel and quarters while he was serving as Professor of Military Science at the Indiana State University under a detail of the War Department. Presbyterian General Assembly in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 19.—The fourth day's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly opened this morning. After a long discussion, which was abruptly closed by Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, moving the previous question, the report of the Centennial Committee recommending the Church to take part in the Centennial Celebration in Philadelphia was adopted and a committee appointed to co-operate with the Centennial Committee.

The report of the committee on the subject of periodicals for gratuitous distribution by the Board of Publication was considered, pending which the hour for the usual order of the day arrived, viz.: the report of the special committee to which had been referred the annual report of the committee on benevolence and finance. Dr. Backus, chairman of the special committee, read the report, consideration of which occupied the remainder of the morning session, and without coming to a vote, the matter went over as unfinished business.

Mr. Bell gave notice of his intention to move a reconsideration of the vote this morning adopting the recommendations of the centennial committee.

Adjourned till evening, when the report on the board of education will be considered.

MESSRS. BRUNOT, Kemble and Alvord have started for the Red Cloud Agency, to fulfill their duties as members of the Special Committee to treat with the Sioux.

JUDGE PIERREPONT announces his purpose to decline the Russian Mission, tendered him by the President. His business interests compel the decision he has made.

IT is thought that President Thiers has come through the Cabinet crisis, forced upon him by the Assembly, victoriously. The new ministers are in sympathy with the Left Centre. Yet the malcontents in the Assembly are already at work, to force a new crisis, by compelling the new ministry to declare its policy. The ministers ask a deferment of this issue, till the Germans evacuate the territory.

WE ARE GRATIFIED to notice that General Jas. A. Ekin, Chief Quartermaster Military Division of the South, has been invited by the citizens of New Albany, to deliver the annual oration on Decoration Day. He has also been requested to perform the same service at Louisville, Kentucky. These attentions attest his popularity at the South, as well as the high appreciation entertained of his ability. The affability and gentlemanliness of General Ekin naturally impress the people favorably toward him, and give him a large influence, which, in his service at the South, has been freely employed in bringing the people into favorable relations with the Government.

THE disturbances in Arkansas, which at one time seemed as chronic as they now are in Louisiana, have broken out afresh, and embody about the same elements as at other times. Senator Clayton, and some others, not finding Governor Baxter just as pliable as they had hoped, have conspired to test the legality of his election, the effect of which, pending his trial, will be to place Lieutenant Governor Smith, one of their men, in the Gubernatorial chair. But Baxter has more pluck than Kellogg, of Louisiana, and has made preparations to thoroughly fight the hostile elements around him. He has the military reorganized, is guarded, and announces his purpose to resist any writ that may be served upon him. A pretty fight, as the affair now stands.

THE dispatches announcing the fall of Khiva have been confirmed, and it is now stated that the Khan is himself a prisoner. This is one of the most important movements made by Russia of late, and will have far-reaching results. It was rumored at one time that modern arms were being supplied by the Khivans through Affghanistan. If this proves true, Russia will have a valid reason for seizing on that country, thus removing the last neutral or hostile barrier between her and British India. As it is, she will be able to penetrate India readily at the northwest corner, through Bokhara, and thus is able to strike England through her Indian possessions, should occasion seem to demand it. Every such conquest as that last made weakens Turkey, in that the rigid Mohammedans of Central Asia are compelled to accept a new political leadership. The time may yet come when Russia will have her trained armies of Mussulmen ready to fight Mohammedans residing along the Bosphorus.

THE statements relative to Mr. Van Buren, ex-Commissioner, do not tend to relieve that gentleman of the odium, which he vigorously claims to have been unjustly put upon him. His denial of the imputation that he had desired, or expects to receive any financial benefit from the Exposition, except his salary, was of the most sweeping character. Yet we have the statement that he sought to arrange with a New York gentleman for a partnership in a restaurant, at the Vienna Exposition. The further statement that he has nearly used up the money appropriated by Congress looks badly. If it should turn out that his case has been fairly investigated, and that he has been righteously suspended, his language, and ostentatious affidavit will look rather singularly. Still, we hope, for the credit of the country he will be fairly condemned, or acquitted, as the case may be. We believe this is what the President intends shall be done. But even if acquitted as charged, Mr. Van Buren will be amenable to removal for the use of violent and disrespectful language.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Kansas Farmer is evidently doing a good work for the agriculturists of that prolific State by affording them clear and cogent advice on subjects of immediate and vital interest. Kansas has rich iron and coal deposits, and might readily develop manufactures. Yet its people, we judge, are among those who decry the railroads and protective tariffs, as though these were the cause of their poverty. We copy, from an article furnished by Josiah Copley, Esq., formerly of this city, two quotations, which are interesting, not merely as arguments to the farmers, but as containing valuable information as well. To the farmers of Kansas he says:

The farmer ought to be able to reach the people who make his cloth, his leather, his garments, his boots and shoes, his wagons, plows, &c., without the intervention of anybody. We ought to rear sheep here by the million and have woolen goods to sell, instead of sending off to New or Old England for such things, as we are now doing. We ought to have cotton mills here, and have cotton goods to sell to our still more western people. We can grow hemp and flax here with great success; but to make these things conducive to our prosperity they must be worked up into cordage, woven fabrics and oil, here among ourselves; and so of a thousand other things. People who have nothing to sell but crude products, and who are obliged to pay for the carrying of all they sell and of all they buy hundreds and hundreds of miles, must expect to be poor; for the mere cost of this carrying is a waste which renders prosperity impossible, even though the railroad men should put rates down to the lowest grades they could afford.

To the free traders West he very pertinently remarks:

There is a vast amount of capital in the United States, but so long as this clamor against protection is kept up the men who own it are cautious about investing it in costly works, which the adoption of the free trade policy would render valueless. Well, what is the consequence? Why, simply this: that we lose much of the advantage of home competition among American manufacturers. Those already in existence make larger profits because they have fewer competitors. Thus the hue and cry against protection in Kansas and other Western States is putting money into the pockets of the manufacturers of New England and the iron men of Pennsylvania, because it keeps many other parties from going into competition with them. The farmers of Kansas and Iowa are suffering from this nonsense, not the established manufacturers of the East. It is profitable to them.

As we have repeatedly said, free trade will be of no benefit to Western farmers, while protection will ultimately give them manufactured articles cheaply. We believe the railroads should do their utmost to aid the farmers. Failing to do this, it is not a matter of surprise that the people should resort to extreme, and even unwise measures for relief. Yet if such advice as above given were generally accepted, the time required for overcoming existing difficulties would be very greatly lessened.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The articles we have published, urging the importance of care and wisdom in the selection of party candidates for State officers, have produced a decided feeling, and general discussion has been awakened. We notice a tendency, in some directions, to make it personal, and to mark out who shall or shall not be nominated. We are less particular about individuals than character, and methods of nominating. In our previous articles we have held, and still hold, that the maintenance of the principles of the party is of paramount importance; and that at this time, the characters of the candidates nominated will have more to do with this than any platform that can be adopted. National issues are not pending, and the next election in this State will have no influence in determining the general policy of the Republican party. That was fixed last year. But we will show, this year, in the candidates we select, just how far we regard the principles we have laid down, and earnestly advocated. Fortunately there is a large list of candidates, and each of them is well endorsed by the people who are presumed to know him. Hence it will not be for lack of candidates if suitable selections are not made. We also insist that nominations shall be fairly made, and represent the unbiased choice of the party. Here the greatest danger comes in. Already a number of County Conventions have been held, and the delegates selected for the State Convention are known to be in the interest of the intriguing element among our politicians. This difficulty may be overcome, but it will only be by the promptest action of the part of the press and people. Already, we are gratified to notice, the alarm is being sounded. We subjoin a few quotations to show the interest of the press on the subject. Says the Venango Citizen:

The campaign of last year settled, for four years to come, the policy and principles of the party, and they will not come under discussion in this contest. The great object is to get men, to fill the offices, of integrity and ability, against whom even the breath of suspicion in connection with any dishonorable action cannot be breathed. If the Republican party should be so unfortunate as to choose for its standard bearers men unqualified for the positions to be filled, or in any way connected with the corrupt cliques or rings that are now endeavoring to control affairs, defeat is certain. From all corrupt and demoralizing influences the Republican party must be purified, and to accomplish this work, the great majority of the Republican party are determined.

The Lancaster Inquirer is not less decided. It says the interests of the people and the party, are against the politicians:

Let the people be enlightened and the necessity of prompt action pointed out, and we will have a Convention, and, as the result of its labors, a State ticket of which the honest Republican of the State may be proud. Now is the time to act. Let all who want a ticket that is the choice of the people bestir themselves. Let no man be sent as a delegate to the State Convention who is not in favor of putting the best men in nomination, and of overturning the corrupt dynasty that is clinging like a leech to the Republican party, and sucking its very life-blood. If there is not virtue enough in our ranks to make a fight against these vampyres it will be pretty good evidence that our party is rotten to the core.

The Indiana Messenger uses language stronger than we desire to, at the present. Yet we give a brief extract, premising that there are other and influential journals that are even more decided still:

These convention manipulators should understand that the masses of the party—the high privates who do the voting—are not prepared to vote for any candidate who does not come up to the highest standard of integrity and honesty. The nominations of the approaching Convention, to have a binding effect upon the party, must consist of men who are above suspicion of any connection with this corrupt ring. We want no pot house politician, from Philadelphia or elsewhere, foisted upon the party at the instance of a set of unscrupulous scoundrels, who are dragging the party down to certain destruction. The sooner our organization is freed from their pernicious influences the better, and we are glad to see a determined disposition amongst the rank and file to submit to their machinations no longer.

We have not the space to quote farther; but our readers can readily see that all parts of the State are included in the movement. As against utterances like what we quote above, the reply has been made that only such papers as are disaffected toward the party join in this movement. This is not the fact. Indeed the Philadelphia Press, the leading opponent of Hartranft, has had nothing to say in reference to the coming nominations. The journals engaged in the present discussion sustained the nominations last fall, and are thoroughly committed to the interests of the party now. They are above little and tricky influences, and generally their proprietors are not office-seekers. And they are right. Have not the masses of the Republican party a right to be fairly represented in the forthcoming State Convention? Have they not the right to object to set-up nominations? Have they not the right to demand that men of the purest character, and best intelligence, shall be their standard bearers?

We regard as downright impudence, the affirmation, that certain assumed leaders know better what will be for the interest of the party, than the rank and file of its members. We deny the right of a few to disregard the wishes of the many, just because they happen to have captured the primaries, or the conventions. Fairness would lead to a stricter regard for popular sentiment, when so trusted with a controlling influence. More than this, we hold that the State Convention is all the more bound to furnish acceptable candidates, as, thus far, there has been no general demand put forth for any particular individual, for either of the offices to be filled. Thus far popular sentiment has not crystallized around any one individual. Hence the Convention will be all the more free in its selection. There is nothing whatever, up to the present, to prevent the greatest freedom of choice; and we incline to believe that this condition of public sentiment will continue to prevail. The people simply say to the next State Republican Convention,—the good of the party requires fairness of choice, and honest, reputable candidates. Give us these, and all is well; refuse to do it, and the party will not endorse the errors of a wrong-headed Convention.

KHIVA.

The Ruler and His Subjects—How the Land is Governed.

[Berlin Correspondence of the London Standard.]

The Invalide Russe gives some interesting particulars respecting Khiva, its ruler, and its people. The Khan, Mohamed Rachim, is a young man of 25 years of age, who, though absolute lord and master of the lives of his subjects, pays little attention to State matters, and passes all his time with his concubines in the harem, or with his hawks in the field. His dearest friend and chief adviser was (requiescat in pace) the Divan-begi Mad-Murad, who instigated his sovereign to lay hands upon the Russians just set at liberty, and always strongly discountenanced their release. The nominal Kush-begi, or Prime Minister, is one Nasar-jarym, who took the opposite side, and consequently had to go to the wall, as long as Mad-Murad enjoyed the ascendant. He is now, I presume, reinstated in the Royal favor. Another functionary, Polvandshan (pronounced Polvanjan), described as a "sort of foreign Minister," is a person of some ability and a linguist; for, besides several Asiatic tongues, he reads and speaks Russian. Two other personages, Ssadyk and Asbergen, are in high favor with the Prince and popular with the people, but "incorrigible robbers and sworn foes of Russia." In the absence of any authentic particulars of the last outbreak on the part of the Khan, it does not appear whether these individuals have been hanged like Mad Murad, or kept in reserve for some new phase in the shifting humors of the Khan. The regular military force of the Khanat consists of 500 foot and 1,000 horse. The latter wear a uniform, and are armed with percussion locks. The artillery is served by Afghans and Hindoos. In addition to these, there is an irregular force of 2,000 Turcomans, upon whom, however, little reliance can be placed. The country is divided for administrative purposes into as many districts as there are towns, each town with an outlying radius forming a district within which a representative of the Khan holds despotic sway. Justice, such as it is, is exercised by the Khan in person, or by Judges whose decisions rest upon two foundations—the written law (schariat), and the unwritten law (adat), and frequently, adds the Invalide, upon none whatever. The ways and means are furnished in the first place by a household tax (ssalgvl) varying from four to twenty roubles a year, when two-fifths of the agricultural produce, when there is any. Another tax, called takapnaja, is levied upon garden produce. Among the nomad population the Karakalpaks contribute the value of one sheep in every hundred, of one ox or cow in twenty, and of one camel in six. The Khirghese are less heavily taxed. Upon imports an ad valorem duty of 2¼ per cent. is charged, and then there are extraordinary imposts whenever it suits the purpose of the Khan to lay on the screw. Coming as they do from a Russian source, these particulars must, perhaps, be received with some caution. Still, there is little doubt that they present in the main a tolerably faithful picture of the general condition of things in a petty Asiatic principality.

A Remarkable Mexican.

General Manuel Lozada, of Mexico, is one of the most remarkable characters that country has yet produced. He is a pure-blooded Indian, and for more than twenty years has maintained an independent government of his own in a mountainous region of country situated in the State of Jalisco. His guiding principle is an echo of that of the Know Nothings of the United States, and is comprised in his motto—"Mexicans must rule Mexico;" and by Mexicans he means the genuine descendants of the Aztecs. He is half a bandit and half a statesman. For forty years he carried on a successful contest with Juarez, remaining invincible in his mountain fastnesses, and fully establishing his authority as a dictator. While the remainder of Mexico has been in a continual state of disorder, his little dominion has been a model of tranquility and order. Life and property are said to be as safe there as in any part of New England. Thieves and murderers are executed without mercy. Gambling is prohibited, and is punished with severe penalties. Liquor laws are in force, and their provisions are stringently carried out. Even the use of profane language is not permitted. All children between the ages of six and twelve years are compelled by law to attend school, and widows and orphans are maintained at public expense. Criminals are required to labor on the public works. Agricultural interests are fostered by wise and thoughtful enactments; and Lozada's ambition is to extend his rule over the whole of Mexico, in which achievement he would receive the sympathy of the advocates of good government everywhere. If his merits have not been exaggerated, Mexico badly needs some such a man at the head of her affairs.

IT TURNS out that Lusignani, the New Jersey wife-murderer, meditated a second crime almost at the foot of the scaffold. A few days before his execution he sent for Bariotti, the paramour of his dead wife, saying he wanted to forgive him. The fellow came, showed Luignani's letter to the jailor and requested admission. The jailor, suspecting something, searched the prisoner's cell, and found a pair of shears. It was afterward learned that Lusignani told his counsel that he would die happy if he could kill Bariotti.

MR. CHARLES SUMNER has not a very exalted opinion of the influence and circulation of newspapers. Not long since a Boston man named Potter made a speech on metropolitan annexation, and Senator Sumner wrote to him thusly: "Your speech has thrown a flood of light on a most interesting subject, and made me see the future of Boston in a clear vista. Such a speech, if delivered in Congress, would appear forthwith in a pamphlet. Yours should not be allowed to disappear in the newspapers."

A MEDICAL journal states that dentists do not sufficiently study the local applications of pulverised ether to the trigeminal nerve, in front of the ear, as a means of painless extraction of teeth in ordinary cases. Henocque and Fredel announced, in 1866, that, by the local application of pulverised ether in this way, prolonged for three or four minutes, over the maxillary and molar regions, sufficient anæsthesia can be painlessly and almost certainly secured, and their observations have been confirmed by others.

A REPORTER of the Hartford Times paid a visit to Mrs. Sherman, the Derby poisoner, at the State prison, the other day, and found her engaged trimming the plants in the women's work-room. The matron speaks of her as one of the best prisoners to get along with that she ever had to deal with. Her cell is a model of neatness. It is carpeted, and the bed stool, pail and shelves are all covered with white dimity. Several pictures hang on the wall, and a number of handsomely bound books are piled on the shelf.

THE merchants and ship captains of New York are signing petitions asking the Board of Trade in London to recall Consul General Archibald. The reason assigned is, that Archibald has caused much inconvenience, and sometimes serious losses, to ship owners and others, in consequence of the difficulty experienced in getting crews, he having revoked the licenses of shipping agents and opened a special office himself for the shipping and discharging of English crews. The profits from this business are said to be fifteen thousand dollars a year.

THE increase of insanity in New Jersey is stated to be so great that the authorities find themselves troubled to take care of the patients. The asylums at Trenton and Newark crowded, and the county asylums are full, while in some of the asylums the increase is about five per month. In view of these facts, an additional force has been put upon the new asylum at Morristown, and two hundred and fifty men are now engaged upon it. This asylum has a length of 1,244 feet, and, it is hoped, will be large enough to furnish the necessary accommodations, including those now in county hospitals.

THAT is a singular view which is taken by a Baltimore lawyer of amania for poisoning. He thinks that when a man or woman poisons a human being without detection, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the poisoner becomes insane. His reasoning is that one successful crime of this sort begets such a sense of power and of ability to remove at will every human obstacle, so blunting at the same time, the sympathies, "that in nearly every case the mind becomes warped, and the poisoner is ready with the deadly draught to avenge the most trifling disrespect or wrong." Let those who think of poisoning anybody take warning.

A MOVEMENT has been initiated to raise funds for the family of the late C. F. Hall. His enthusiastic devotion to geographical science, which will give him a rank with posterity among the most intrepid explorers of the century, and still more his sad death, will arouse the public sympathy in behalf of his widow and children. Viewed from a strictly practical standpoint, his adventurous spirit may appear unwisely directly, but it was akin to that of Columbus, Gama, and the Cabots of early times, and of the Franklins, Scoresbys, Livingstones, and Bakers of our own day. In future records of polar explorations the name of Hall will occupy no insignificant place.

A SHORT time since a lady in Casco, in Michigan, went out to the river's bank to see her husband and some other men roll some logs down a logway into the river. True to the woman's instinct to "help," she took a lever and pried one end of a log, which in starting caught by a knot in her wrapper, and took her with it down the steep embankment, a distance of nearly seventy feet. The log passed over her twice, she each time falling between other logs in such a way as to avoid being crushed. As she was going over the third time her skirts caught on a root, loosening her from the knot and saving her from going into the river. Her dress, which was a new one at the outset, was torn in shreds, and this, with a few black and blue spots, was the extent of the damage from her perilous descent.

THE foreign obituary record of the past month includes the names of Prince Camillo Massimo, who was for a long time Director of the Post-office Department under the Pontifical Government; Col. Gabriel Ussani, of the Royal Neapolitan army, who took a very prominent part in the defense of Gaeta; M. Arcisse de Caumont, President of the French Archæological Society; Maj-Gen. Alfred Geager Goodwyn, one of the most gallant officers in the English service, who had served in all the Afghanistan and Indian campaigns of the past thirty years; Carlo Coccia, an eminent musical composer of Milan, who had a widely-extended Italian reputation for his operas; and Capt. D. T. Chamberlayne, one of the gallant six hundred who made the memorable charge at Balaklava, during the Crimean war.

A VERY singular murder was recently committed upon one of the Irish railroads. The conductor of a night train, noticing that his train was slacking its speed, went forward to the locomotive to see what had happened, and was surprised to find neither the engineer nor the fireman upon the engine. He at once stopped the train, and upon making investigation, found the engineer lying dead some distance in the rear, with a fearful wound in his head. Shortly afterward the fireman made his appearance, and stated that they had a quarrel, and during the struggle, he struck the engineer, and both fell from the engine. Fortunately the speed of the train in some manner was slackened, otherwise a most appalling disaster might have taken place. Such possibility as this is not a very pleasant consideration for railroad travelers.

PERSONAL.

VINNIE REAM will be married in the fall to a New York clothing merchant.

REV. FANNIE U. ROBERTS has lately commenced her labors in Kittery, Me., as the pastor of the Universalist Society there, at a salary of $800 per year.

MRS. MATTIE MCCLELLEN BROWN, of the Alliance Monitor, has sailed for Europe as a representative of the Order of Good Templars of Ohio.

MRS. MARGARET SKAMBO, of Williston, Vt., is 78 years of age and the mother of twenty-two children (no twins), and now works for seventy-five cents a week.

GEORGE RUSSELL, who saved the little boy Jonny Hanley, the only child rescued from the wreck of the Atlantic, has returned to his home in Elenderry, Ireland.

PRINCE BISMARCK is a great consumer of lager beer, introducing it in his dwelling house in small kegs, which are on tap at all hours of the day and night, and on all occasions.

IT MAY be some satisfaction to Mr. Caleb Cushing to learn that Mr. Guilford Onslow, M. P., thinks that Lord Chief Justice Cockburn is eminently discourteous, and has written to the London Times to tell of the experience which originated the idea.

MRS. GEN. R. E. LEE is soon to pay a visit to her relative, Mrs. Fitzhugh, of Alexandria. Mrs. Lee has been an invalid for years, but is at present better than for some time past. She is now on a visit to her son, Gen. W. H. Lee, near White House.

THE wife of Hans Christian, the Esquimaux guide of Captain Hall, who was among the persons from the Polaris lately rescued from the ice-drift, has, since her return to civilization and good food, eaten not wisely, but too much, and has been sent to the country to recover from her surfeit.

"JOSH BILLINGS," who is Mr. Shaw, of Poughkeepsie, has been written up by the Poughkeepsie Eagle. He gets $100 a week from the New York Weekly; has a desk there and at Carleton's. He gets $1,500, three cents a copy, for dedicating his first Almanac to the Weekly publishers, and $1,300, two cents a copy, for dedicating the second.

OAKES AMES had peculiar ideas on the subject of vacations. One of the eulogists at his funeral said that some seven years ago he suggested to Mr. Ames that he ought to take a little rest, when he replied that "he had taken a day once at the seashore, and that, he thought, would last him for a vacation the rest of his life." Mr. Ames' estate, by the way, is estimated at about a million.

THE most costly new constructure in Newport is a $100,000 Swiss gothic cottage, building on Rhode Island avenue, for Mr. H. J. Marquard, of New York, and the most extensive alteration is an $80,000 addition to the old English villa of Peabody Wetmore, of New York, which is hardly considered an improvement. Ross Winans, the Baltimore millionaire, is building a $50,000 cottage; F. W. Andrews, of Boston, a mammoth wooden residence, 115 by 120 feet; and Admiral Gale is erecting a showy $20,000 house.

THE late Chief Justice Chase was the finest scholar who has ever presided over the Supreme Court. As a Latin and Greek scholar he was not surpassed by any man in his profession. He read French as readily as English—was a finished Italian, Spanish and German scholar—and thoroughly versed in English literature. His appreciation of and perfect mastery of the works of Shakspeare, Milton, the earlier British poets and the later exponents of the poetic art, Wordsworth and others of the Lake school, was something marvelous.

The Lungs—Consumption.

The importance of early treatment in lung diseases by some who has given the matter a special and separate attention daily, becomes more and more apparent. The cures made by Dr. Keyser, of this city, in some of the most hopeless cases of consumption, entitles him to the most distinguished consideration in that important branch of the healing art, the Doctor's recent improvements, not only in the remedies used, but in the increased facilities which he has brought into requisition, are such as afford hope for a cure, after all other ordinary means had been apparently exhausted. His Lung Cure, in the language of an editor of this city is invaluable; and whilst it is curing, at the same time supports nature and renews life.

The Doctor's office is at 167 Liberty street, adjoining his Medicine Store, or at his residence, 120 Penn street. A treatise on Consumption sent free by mail whenever ordered.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 19, 1873.

The local money market continues easy and there is no new feature to notice. Everything financial appears to be in a highly satisfactory condition. The demand and supply are pretty well balanced, and the prospects for the immediate future are favorable for an easy money market in all parts of the country.

The feeling generally is quite comfortable throughout, first-class buyers experiencing no difficulty in obtaining what money they require. Of course there are some now, as there always are, who complain that they cannot obtain sufficient accommodation, but in the majority of such cases it would probably be found that they are parties who are doing a larger business than is justified by their capital. There is nothing new to report in regard to local securities. The real estate and building business are becoming more active; transactions are more frequent. The great bulk are purchasers of lots to be occupied by the buyers as homes, and the majority of these new homes are in the suburbs. It would be difficult to say in which direction the activity in this class of property is greatest. Our advertising columns contain the announcements of a number of handsome sites, now in the market.

Messrs. Robinson Bro., bankers, No. 78 Fourth avenue, furnish the following quotations of active stock on the Philadelphia Stock Board to-day:

Penna. Central	54	54⅜

United Cos. of N. J.	129⅜	129⅜
Oil Creek	30⅜	31

Pittsburgh 5s	74	74
Allegheny Valley 7-30	94⅜	94⅜

In the Philadelphia money market there is no material change: rates steady and easy at 4 per cent. on call; 7@8 per cent. on time, with good collaterals; 8@9 per cent. for better grades of commercial paper. Business demand remarkably quiet, and it is not likely that there will be any greater pressure in this direction until the opening of the fall trade. In stocks there were sales of new City Sixes at 101⅜, and Lehigh Gold Loan at 94. Reading Railroad changed hands at 57⅜; Pennsylvania at 54⅜; Pennsylvania allotments at 53⅜; Lehigh Valley at 60; United Companies of New Jersey at 129⅜; New Jersey Central at 36, Catawissa new preferred at 32⅜.

THE Philadelphia Ledger says:—"We are steadily approaching September, when it is expected we shall receive from Great Britain the Alabama indemnity, and in the view of the fact that the whole amount is to be paid in gold, in Washington, on a day named, the movement of so much coin is attracting attention as a circumstance very likely to disturb the English money market which cannot be agitated without reflecting on our own. The London Times, alluding to the subject, asks 'what would be the effect if a sum of three millions were drawn out of the bank next week for transmission to Washington? The exchequer balances, as we know, are better now than they can ordinarily be expected to be, but the withdrawal of such a sum would so alter the ratio between the cash reserve of the bank and its liabilities that the directors would feel bound to raise the rate of discount at once one and probably two per cent.' The Times suggests an arrangement, as mutually advantageous by which payment might commence at once, depositing it in our Treasury in exchange for certificates payable on demand. The Times thinks the Secretary would find it more easy to employ the money usefully in the meanwhile if he received it in instalments than if he received it in one payment. To attempt to withdraw from the bank at one sweep next August the coin necessary to discharge the Alabama indemnity is an experiment manifestly fraught with danger in financial centres. It is well for banks, bankers and dealers in sterling exchange to keep the near approach of this payment in remembrance."

IN Boston, loanable funds are in plentiful supply and at 7 per cent. the amount offering is quite equal to the demand. We note but limited transactions in mercantile paper, and the range of rates remains as heretofore, from 7 to 9 per cent. according to grade. While comparative dullness prevails in the open market, the banks report increased applications for discount from their regular customers, whom they readily supply at 7 per cent.

THE demand for money in Chicago is active and steady. At the banks having the largest lines of mercantile accounts this has been particularly the case than at others where a large share of the accounts are speculative. In the open market there is still a fair supply of money offered on prime collaterals at 10 per cent.

IN Cincinnati the demand for money is quite active at the leading discount houses, much more so than it has been for several days past, but the banks were able to meet about all of the applications from depositors at 8@10 per cent., although the tone of the market was decidedly stronger. Outside of bank there was an increased supply of prime Mercantile Paper, which, however, was placed without difficulty at 10 per cent.

NEW YORK, May 19, 1873.

Money was more active at 5@7 per cent. gold, the latter rate before the close of bank hours, after which there was a fall to 5@6. Sterling dull; 109 @109¼ for sixty days, and 110@110⅛ for sight, and 110⅛@110⅜ for cable transfers. Gold was steady in the forenoon, and weaker in the afternoon, at a range of 117⅜@118⅛, closing at 117⅜@117⅞. Loans [illegible] Treasury disbursements $145,800. Custom receipts $[illegible]. Governments were quiet and firm. The Germans are buyers to-day. State bonds were quiet. Stocks opened at an advance of ¼@½ per cent., but the improvement was soon lost. Thereafter the market was alternately steady and weak, but generally dull. The leading feature was Pacific Mail, the transfer books for the annual election to which closed to-day. The stock was worth 3-16 per cent at one time for borrowing. The market closed dull but steady. The chief fluctuations include Pacific Mail 47⅜, 45⅜, 46, 46¾, 46⅜ and 45⅜; Panama 112⅜ and 111; Erie 62, 61¾, 62⅜, 61⅜ and 62⅜; Western Union 86⅜, 86⅜, 85⅜ and 86; St. Paul 54⅜, 55⅜ and 54⅜; C. C. & I. C. 30⅜, 30, 30⅜ and 30; Ohio 42, 41⅜ and 42; New York Central 100⅜, 100⅜, 100 and 100⅜; Lake Shore 90⅜ and 90⅜; Rock Island 108⅜, 108 and 108⅜; Union Pacific 31⅜, 30⅜, 30⅜ and 30⅜.

GOVERNMENTS.—U. S. coupons of 1881, 122; 5-20s of '62, 116⅜; do '64, 116⅜; do '65, 117⅜; do new, 118⅜; do '67, 120⅜; do '68, 118⅜; new 5s, 114⅜; 10-40s, 114⅜; currency 6s, 115⅜.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 19, 1873.

ASHES—Soda Ash is easier, and we reduce our quotations to 4½ for common, 6 for refined, and 5 for Nitrate. Pots, 9@9½; Pearls, 11. Black lead, 6. Manganese, 6½. Arsenic, 5. Fluor Spar, 2½.

APPLES—There have been increased arrivals within the past week, and the market in consequence is easier; we now quote at $2,50@3,00 per brl. for common to fair, and $3.50@4 for prime to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—Is in steady demand, and we can report regular sales at 50@55c per gallon for fair to prime, and 60 for choice.

ALE—There is a very good city demand, but the fact that nearly every county in the western part of the State voted against license, has, as might be expected, almost destroyed the country trade. No change in prices. X Ale, $8 per brl to the city, and $9 to the country; XX, $10. India Ale, $11; half barrels in proportion.

BEANS—The market is rather firmer in consequence of a reduced supply, and we reduce our quotations to $2,50@3,00 per bushel, the outside figure for prime navy.

BROOM CORN—The market continues quiet, the inquiry being restricted to supplying immediate wants, but prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote red at 2½@3c; green, 4@5; hurl, 5½@6c. The arrivals have been light for some time past, but the supply is still in excess of the demand.

BUTTER—The market has been lagging all week, and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand and stocks accumulating, the market is weak and drooping. Quotations may be given at 10 to 15 for common to medium, and 18@20 for prime to choice roll. Pedlars and farmers are now almost able to supply the demand, hence, commission men are anxious to sell, being apprehensive of a still farther decline, and the result is the tendency is still downward.

BEESWAX—Quotable at 35@40 cents.

BAGGING—Penn Mill two bushel bags, 37c, two and one-half bushel, 45; three bushel, 53; Allegheny two bushel, 35.

CEMENT & LIME—Louisville Hydraulic Cement, $2.00@2.50 per barrel; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4.50; Land Plaster, 3@3.25. Cleveland and Perrysburg Lime $1.75@2; Eastern, $1.50@1.75.

COTTON, SHEETING and YARNS.—Penn Mill A. No. 1, 4-4 Sheeting, 13c. Nonatock, 17½c; Pittsburgh Family, 12c; Juniata B. fine, 11½c; White Carpet Chain fine 38c; Colored, 43c Cotton Batting, 18; Cotton Twine, 36.

CORDAGE & ROPE—Manilla rope, ¾ inch diameter and upwards, 19 cents; ⅜, 19½c; ¼ and 5-16, 20c; tarred rope and lath yarn, 18½c; hay and leather twine, 19½. Sisal rope—¾ inch to 5-16 inch diameter, 17½c; ⅝, 17; ¾ and upwards, 16½; hay and spoke twine, 17. Oil well drilling cables—hawser laid, 19c; do bolt rope and yarns, 20½; Sand pump rope, 19.

CARBON OIL—The jobbing trade, as it always is at this season of the year, continues very dull, and prices within the past week, have declined a full ¼ of a cent; we now quote at 16c by the car load, and 1@2c additional for smaller lots.

CHEESE—The stock of old is about exhausted and the new is improving in point of quality. Ohio Dairy is quotable at 11@11½; and choice Factory at 14@14½. The arrivals recently have been increasing and the market is now pretty well supplied, although by no means overstocked.

CANNED GOODS—Trade continues very quiet, and prices have undergone no change whatever. Peaches, 3 lb. cans, $3; Tomatoes 2.37@2.50. Winslow's Corn, $3; other brands, $2.50@2.75.

COUNTRY BACON—Is in light supply and sells readily within the range of quotations, as follows: Shoulders, 6@7c; Clear Sides, 8½@9c; Hams, 10@12. Country Lard, 8@9c, according to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues very dull, and what is worse still, there is but little prospect of any material improvement in the demand this year; prices, however, are nominally unchanged. Peaches, prime halves, 6@6½; quarters and mixed, 4@5½. Apples, 3@4c. Blackberries, 10@12. Pitted Cherries, 16@18; unpitted, 5@8.

FIRE BRICK—West Virginia, $18 to $30; Bolivar grades, $40; Star, $45; Woodland, $55; Mount Savage $65.

FEATHERS—Live goose feathers may be quoted at 73@75c per lb.

EGGS—The market is easier than it was at this time last week, in consequence, mainly, of a diminished demand, and we reduce our quotations to 16@17.

FLOUR—The market, especially for Spring wheat flours, is firmer, in sympathy with Spring Wheat, and we advance our quotations 25c per barrel, as follows: $7.75@8.25, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas. Red winter wheat flours are also firmer but unchanged, ranging from $8.50 to $9 for western, and $9.50 for city brands—winter wheat has advanced fully 5c per bushel in this market within the last few weeks while the product remains unchanged. Both New York and Liverpool have been firmer for several days past, and as might be expected, the western markets, our main source of supply, are sympathizing. Rye Flour, $5.50@5.75.

GRAIN—Trade in all kinds of Grain continues quiet, the demand, as has been the case for some time past, being confined entirely to supplying immediate wants, hence, notwithstanding the stocks are comparatively light, prices, however, remain without quotable change. The receipts of Wheat continue very meagre, and the mills are taking all the winter within the range of quotations, $1.80@1.85 for red, and $1.85@1.90 for white. Then there has been a sharp advance in spring wheat within the past week, but as there is little or no call for it in this market it is a matter of but little consequence here, however, there is considerable spring wheat flour sold here, and, as we have already stated, it has advanced 25c per brl in consequence. Oats in fair demand and light supply, but prices remain without quotable change ranging from 47@49, as to quality. Some dealers report that it is almost impossible to obtain above 48c for prime white, while others, again, claim that taking the cost in first hands as a basis they should have 50c, and this seems to be generally conceded, yet for the time being, buyers are scarce at anything above 48c. Shelled Corn is in very light supply, yet as most of the distillers are virtually cut of the market in consequence of the dull and unsatisfactory condition of the whisky market, there is little inquiry for it; may be quoted at 55@56 on track, and 57@58 free in elevator. Ear Corn is also in light supply, but the demand is light, it is quotable at 55@57. There is really nothing doing in Rye or Barley, scarcely enough to establish quotations; the former may be quoted nominally at 85@90, and the latter at 85@90 for spring, and 95@$1 for fall.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 25; Good to Prime, 22½@23½c, fair 21@21½c. Old Government Java, 31c; other Javas, 26@28c; Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 28c; loose, 27½c. Roasted Java, 33½.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11; B, 10¾; Ex. C, 10½c; C, Yellow, 10⅜; Circle C, 10⅛; Lower grades, 9@10.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9; prime, 8¾; Patna, 8@8½; Rangoon, 7¾@8.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c; Prime 70@72c.

Buffalo Corn Starch, 10; Buffalo Gloss Starch, 9. Pearl Starch, 5¼. Shot, $3 per bag. Lead, 12. Wheeling Tobies, $10.50.

FISH—Large Shore, No. 1, $25.00 per barrel; Med Shore No 1, $23 per brl; Bay No. 1, $21; for ½ brls, quarters and kitts. 32c more. Lake Herring, halfs, $3.40; Lake herrings, quarters, $2.15; White fish, $8.

LUMBER—The current prices for lumber afloat range from $18 to $20 per M for all common, and $22 to $24 for 20 per cent. of clear and first common. Shingles scarce and selling readily at $5.50. HAY—The market for Baled hay continues dull, though prices are without quotable change, ranging from $24 to $28 per ton, according to quality. Loose selling from country wagons at $30 to $40 per ton, mostly at $30 to $35.

HOMINY—$4@4.25 per barrel.

HIDES—Following are the ruling quotations: Green Salted Steer Hides, 11½@12c. Green Salted Mixed, 11¼@11½. Green Salted Cow, 11@11½. Green Butcher steer, 8@9; Green Butcher cows, 7@8; Green Butcher bull hides, 6; Green Salted Kip, 0.13@0.14; Green Salted Calf each, 1.20@2; Green Butcher's Calf, 12; Flint Hides nominal at 22 cents.

MAPLE SYRUP—$1.35@1.40 for gallon jugs. Maple Sugar, dull, 14@15.

MILL FEED—Continues dull, but there is no change in prices, and as the receipts recently have been very small, stocks must of necessity be considerably reduced. Bran is quotable at 75@80 cts. per cwt. Seconds at 90@$1. Middlings at $1.10 @1.30.

OILS—No. 1 Lard Oil 1.75@75 No. 2, 65; Linseed 95@$1. Whale W. B. 85@94; Bank, 78; Straits, 85. Cod $1.50@2 Spirits of Turpentine 65@72.

OIL BARRELS—Tin fair demand, but unchanged. Countries, $2@2.65; city make 9 lb. hoops, 2.10; 10 lb. hoops 2.15. Staves, $40@42.

PEA NUTS—In good supply and very dull but unchanged, ranging from 3½@4½c per lb.

POTATOES—The market under the influence of diminished receipts is considerably firmer, and prices, in consequence are a shade higher, we now quote at 75@85c per bushel for good mixed, and 90@95c for prime Peach Blows.

POULTRY—There is a fair demand for live chickens, but prices remain unchanged ranging from 75@85c per pair according to size.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, 14½c, canvassed do., 15c; Extra Sugar Cured Shoulders, plain, 10, canvassed, 10½c; Sugar Cured Breakfast Bacon, plain, 12½c, canvassed, 13c; Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, plain, 18½c, canvassed, 19c; Sugar Cured Beef tongues, $7.50 per dozen. SEEDS—Quiet and unchanged: Clover $5.75@6. Timothy $3.75@4. Flax Seed, $2.05@2.10.

SHAKER CORN—14@15c per lb.

TALLOW—7¾@8c.

WHISKY—Highwines are firmer and higher in sympathy with Chicago; we now quote at 94@95c.

WHITE LEAD—Is in good demand but unchanged, the 'combination' price is 12c for ton lots, and 12½ in a jobbing way. In tin packages, ½ to 1c per lb. additional.

WINDOW GLASS—Trade continues unsatisfactory; not so much from a paucity of orders, as in consequence of the ruinous prices; at current selling rates, we are reliably informed that there is no margin for the manufacturers and the consequence is only those who are pressed for want of money are willing to receive orders, and, as noted in our last report, unless there is a very decided improvement in the meantime, some of our manufacturers contemplate putting out their fires on the 1st of June, a month earlier than usual.

In addition to the fifty cars above noted, there were fully three cars driven in from the adjoining country, two of which were bulls, making 53 cars in all, or counting 17 to the car, 901 head, showing a slight falling off as compared with last week in point of number, but we are confident that there were a greater number of pounds, as fully three-fourths of the entire supply consisted of heavy cattle. It was the subject of general remark that there were more good cattle on sale to-day than there has been for at least a year past, and the consequence was, there being an oversupply of this kind, that they did not sell as readily as usual; on the other hand, the supply of the common and medium grades was scarcely equal to the demand, and they sold quicker, and at relatively better prices than the best butcher cattle, and made more money for their owners. It is not often that this is the case, but such was the situation to-day—an over-supply of prime stock, while of common and medium there were scarcely enough to meet the demand. Of the 53 cars on sale, 47 cars were from Chicago, and nearly all of the 47 cars were good to prime, and extra; taking the quality into consideration, there was no quotable change in prices as compared with last week, although it was claimed that the Chicago stock cost more than that of last week, and if this is true, the market was not as good for sellers, for, as we have already stated, they did not obtain any better prices to-day than they did last Monday. Extra butcher cattle from 6¾@7c, with some few fancy at 7¼; prime 6¾@6⅝; medium to good, 6@6¼; good 1,000@1,100 steers, and the supply of this kind was scarcely equal to the demand, 5½@6. Stock cattle, of which there were none on sale, quotable at 4½@5¼, as to quality—it is said that in Chicago, as here, stockers are in good demand and selling readily at full prices. Bulls, quotable at 3½@4½.

Lobman & Zeigler sold 40 head of fair to prime butcher stock at 6½@6¾.

Andy Stakely sold 1 head of good 1,000 steers at 5¾.

Haas & Rothchilds & Katz report four cars of prime to extra butcher stock from Chicago at 6@7.

Davis and Rush sold 12 head good 800 stock steers at 5c, 3 cows at 4½ for dry, and $55 per head for fresh.

M. Kraus sold 2 cars good to extra at 6@6¾—reported too many good cattle.

Smith & Kraus sold 2 cars of fair to extra butcher stock at 5¾@6¾.

Lowensteine and Hartman sold four cars of fair to extra butcher stock from Chicago at 5¾@7¼.

M. Varner sold 54 prime to extra cattle from Chicago at 5.40@7.

W. Moonshine sold 2 cars of fair to prime butcher cattle at 5⅞@6¾.

Sadler, Havens and Co. sold 1 car still fed bulls at 4½, 2 cars of prime to extra butcher steers from Chicago at 6@6¾.

Jacob Needy sold 2 cars of prime to extra butcher stock from Ohio at 6@7.

Holmes, Lafferty and Co. sold 2 cars from Chicago at 6@6¾, and two cars from Ohio at 6@6.50.

Thos. Kestner sold two cars from Chicago at 6 @6¾.

Sol. Traurman sold 36 fair to prime butcher stock at 6@6¾.

Sol. Lowenthal reports 28 head of fair to good butcher cattle at 6@6¾.

Hazlewood and Blackstock sold 2 cars of fair to extra butcher cattle at 6@7c, and 1 car common bulls at 3½@4.

S. Marks Bro sold 4 cars of Chicago stock at 6@7.

Orr, Williams and Co. sold 2 cars fair to good steers about 1,100 lbs, 6@6¾.

Nicholas Carr reports 1 car of good to prime butcher cattle at 6.25@6.70.

James Hunter sold 1 car of fair to prime Chicago cattle at 6¼@6¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The supply was light, about 500 head, at least 400 short of last week, and hence, as might be expected, the market was more active and firmer, although so far as we could learn, there was no general advance in prices. Clipped sheep, as will be seen, brought, in a retail way, from 5 to 6¾c per lb., according to quality. Lambs, of which the supply was very meagre, sold at from $2½@4½ per head. There were no wooled sheep on sale, and there is no demand for them.

Henry Nagle sold 38 good to prime Butler Co. clipped sheep at 5½@6¾.

M. Flinner wholesaled 70 clipped weighing 105 lbs, at 5@6¾—9 lambs at $2¾ per head.

Peter Sheitmantle wholesaled 50 sheep and 34 lambs to Tesh Bro.—price not stated.

Jacob Keefer sold 110 clipped sheep on commission at 4¾@6.

Isaac Ackerman, 125, clipped, Washington Co. sheep at $1.50 per head to 5¾c per lb.

Adam Eckert sold 19 commonish sheep on commission, at $2.70 per head.

HOGS.

The retail trade is about over, as is always the case at this particular time, hence, the prices realized here are of no importance to the public.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, May 19, 1873.

The crude market, contrary to general expectation, was a shade firmer to-day, although prices were not quotably higher, $2.25 per brl. at Parker, equal to about 6¾c per gallon delivered here. Refined continues weak and drooping, 19¾@19⅞ for May, Philadelphia delivery, and 19⅝@19¾ for June; it is probable that sales could have been made at the inside quotations, but refiners do not seem prepared as yet, to accept them being influenced by the raw material, which, as already stated, appears to have touched bottom for the present.

Oil barrels quiet and unchanged; Countries, $2.65; city make, 9 lb. hoops, $2.10; 10 lb. hoops, $2.15.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with 4 feet 8 inches in the channel. Weather cloudy and warm, with indications favorable for rain. Business at the landing was more active than usual, caused mainly by the arrivals. There is no improvement in shipments.

The arrivals include the Carrie Brooks, from Zanesville, and the Mollie Ragon, from Wheeling. The departures were the Messenger for St. Louis, and the Ragon for Wheeling—the latter boat had a fair trip, and will no doubt pick up all she wants below.

The freight on the sunken steamer Exchange, that can be reached, is being transfered to barges, and landed on the wharf, where it will be delivered to the shippers on condition of their signing an average bond. The work of raising her will be commenced as soon as possible, and it is hoped and expected that it can be accomplished with but little difficulty.

Capt. Geo. W. Johnston, an old and well-known steamboatman, but who for several years has been engaged in agricultural pursuits in Iowa, is here with his family, on a visit to his friends.

Capt. Ebert contemplates loading the Mollie Ebert for St. Louis, and it is his intention to keep her permanently in the Pittsburgh and St. Louis trade.

Daniel Cooper, a deck hand on the Acorn, and said to be a resident of this city, fell overboard from that steamer, on Saturday, near Wellsville, and was drowned.

The Jennie Howell and La Belle with tows of iron ore, passed Cincinnati yesterday, as did also the Coal Valley, Skillinger and Ironsides.

—The Exporter is en route to New Orleans, from the Arkansas, with 1,200 bales of cotton.

—The E. H. Durfee grounded at Jim's river, and took off 150 tons to lighten up, went to Yankton and returned for her freight.

—It is not known when or where the damage to the John Kyle was sustained. The engineer noticed the water running over her decks, which was the first information he had of the accident.

—The St. Louis Democrat, of Saturday, says: A serious affray occurred on the St. Joseph yesterday when she was nearing the city. The pastry cook and a deck hand, both white, quarreled, and the latter was horribly stabbed in the left side. We learn that the victim died while being conveyed from the boat to the hospital. The cook, claiming that he acted in self defense, surrendered to the authorities.

—The St. Louis Republican says: The May Lowry arrived at Sioux City Wednesday night, having left her condenser here for repairing, and used her high pressure cylinders all the way up. She was nearly worn out and barely able to stem the current. On reaching Sioux City one of her cylinder heads was taken off and it was found that the bolts on the piston head had been battered against the head of the cylinder until there were indentures ⅛ of an inch deep. It was a great wonder that the head of the cylinder was not knocked out. The Ohio River steamers buy enough coal in the Ohio to make the trip to New Orleans and back, for which they pay from 8 to 12c a bushel. Most of the St. Louis and New Orleans steamers buy their coal here for the round trip, paying 12 cents a bushel for it. This is caused by the exorbitant prices asked bo the southern markets.

HOME NEWS.

Allegheny City Property Committee Meeting.

The City Property Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening and received the report of the Sub-Committee previously appointed to select a site for the new building for Columbia Truck and Hose Company. They recommended that the lot on Sandusky street between Park way and South Diamond 30x115 feet and belonging to Michael Grogan be purchased for $8,000. Their action will be reported to Councils at its next meeting.

Little Boy Killed.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock Willie Dunning, a little boy about four years of age, son of Gottlieb Dunning, of Mt. Washington, was fatally injured on the Castle Shannon Railroad. He was run over by a loaded car and one leg below the knee was completely mashed to a jelly. Dr. McCormick was summoned and did all that he could for the boy but medical aid was of no avail and he died two hours afterward. The Coroner has been notified to hold an inquest.

Seriously Injured.

Mr. James Best, an old and highly respected citizen of Allegheny, was thrown from a wagon, on Hemlock street, yesterday, and received very serious injuries,—his right leg being broken below the knee in two places, his head cut in several places and his spine injured. The accident was caused by the horse running away.

The victim was picked up immediately and taken to his home, corner of Sampson and Federal street, Allegheny, where he was attended by Drs. Cole and Morrow. He was in a favorable condition last night.

Elevator Accident.

Yesterday afternoon, a young man named Richard Gilpin, a clerk in the store of Mr. William Semple on Federal street, Allegheny, had one of his legs considerably lacerated by being caught between the elevator and the floor. It appears that the young man was descending on the elevator and was dancing and acting carelessly upon it, when he slipped, his leg catching between the elevator and the floor. He had presence of mind enough to immediately pull the check rope and thus had a narrow escape from having his leg terribly crushed. Dr. Ure was summoned and dressed his wounds, after which he was removed to his home, No. 86 Manhattan street.

The New Rule at Semple's.

Last week Mr. Wm. Semple made announcement of the adoption of a new rule to close his store exactly at nine o'clock on Saturday nights, and patrons were requested to make their purchases early. The request was quite generally complied with last Saturday night,—for which Mr. Semple was duly grateful to his friends—but the rush was so great that even when the store was closed, there were many who had not completed their purchases. The new rule, however, has been found to work well and will be adhered to, and the same request is again preferred to patrons—come early on Saturday night, if no other time will suit during the week.

The fresh spring good for every department have been received, and the stocks are kept fresh by daily arrivals, so that all friends, old and new, will find the goods to supply their wants, and the prices as reasonable as ever. Judging from the crowd we saw in the store yesterday, it is pretty certain the people appreciate the superior opportunities offered at Semple's.

How It Ended.

There was a hearing yesterday morning before Mayor Blackmore in the case of George Kelly, Thomas Wilson and George Jackson, the men who were arrested on Saturday last charged with being confidence operators and endeavoring to fleece John Johnson, who was placed upon the stand and identified the prisoners as among the men who attempted to victimize him. His story was told in a decidedly humorous manner, and elicited peals of hearty laughter from the spectators. After the evidence was all taken the Mayor fined the defendants each fifty dollars and costs, and in default of payment, thirty days at Claremont. At the request of General Pearson, counsel for the prisoners, they were remanded to the lock-up until this morning, so as to afford them sufficient time to raise money to pay their fines. When the decision of the Mayor was announced, Kelly became very indignant and threatened, in case he ever caught officer Cupples in New York, to wreak a terrible vengeance on him.

Forged Pay Checks.

Yesterday morning a man named Egbert Hill was arrested at the Union Depot on suspicion of being a party who is charged with forging pay checks of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which are issued to employes and negotiated along the line of the road. Hill was pointed out to Depot-master Butler, by Harry Graybill, as a person suspected by the Harrisburg railroad officials of having forged a check. Mr. B. secured officer Mooney and had the man arrested. He denies any knowledge of the charge against him. He was taken to Harrisburg yesterday by Detective Cupples. Mr. Hill was at one time Superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum, in Columbia county, but latterly he has been engaged in selling an improved oil for sewing machines. He has a wife and son living in this city. He said he left Harrisburg a week ago and came as far as Altoona, where he staid for a day or two, when he came on to Johnstown, canvassing both places on his way. He left Johnstown Friday evening and arrived here on Saturday morning. Parties in this city who know Mr. Hill speak very highly of him and say that so far as they know intemperance is his only fault.

The Annual Meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Considerable interest was awakened yesterday in "Odd Fellow" circles by the departure of number of delegates from this city and vicinity to the Grand Lodge, which is holding its annual meeting at Wilkesbarre, Luzerne county. Every Lodge is entitled to a delegate, and the train yesterday carried away a goodly number of regularly accredited delegates and others who go merely for the pleasure of the trip. Quite a large delegation started Sunday afternoon, so as to be on hand for the opening exercises yesterday morning. There will be between six and seven hundred accredited representatives in attendance from different parts of the State, and Wilkesbarre's provisions for the entertainment of the concourse of visitors is likely to be taxed to the uttermost. The meeting will continue for several days, and several matters of special importance to the members of the fraternity—aside from the usual routine—are to be disposed of, so that the gathering is regarded at this time with peculiar interest.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.

Sparkling Essays—Brilliant Orations—Tableux—Songs—A Feast of Reason.

A pleasant Literary Entertainment was given at Cowan's school house, Robinson township, on Friday evening, 16th inst. The house was completely crowded and many were unable to secure comfortable standing room. The decorations were varied and extensive and those who did the work certainly deserve credit for the taste and neatness displayed.

The opening address was delivered by Miss Jennie McClarren. The essays by Misses Kate Neely, Mary Walker and Carrie McMillan were very fine performances. Miss Neely's subject was "Beauties of Nature," Miss Walker's, "That's Music" and Miss McMillan's, "Mind your own Business." The tableaux of "Cupid and his Dart," "Woman's Rights," and "Fillibuster" were very laughable and delighted the audience.

Among the songs were "Mr. and Mrs. Brown," "The Irish Schoolmaster," "Don't you go, Tommy" and "Toe Singing School." The singers were Miss Annie M. Bell, Prof. J. J. Snodgrass, Will Kelso and Andrew Tidball, and their performances were very pleasing and in excellent taste. "The Irish Schoolmaster," by Prof. Snodgrass, was a delightful performance and was received with much applause.

Select orations were given by George B. Dillon, Willie Ewing, Ella McCoy, William McMichael, Samuel Scott and Mattie Ewing, and lectures were delivered by Joseph McCormick and Hugh Cowan. The dialogues were "As our Mothers do," "The way to Windham" and "The Echo," and all of them were well performed. In addition to the songs the audience was treated to some excellent music by the "Robinson Township String Band."

The closing address was a fine performance and was given by Miss Jennie Cowan. Mr. James W. Neely presided over the meeting with ease to himself and satisfaction to the audience. He was "the right man in the right place" on this occasion.

The Literary Society giving the exhibition had been but a short time in preparation, and certainly they made a very creditable display.

MURDER IN CAMBRIA COUNTY.

John Sanders Killed in a Drunken Brawl at Portage Station—Arrest of the Assailants.

Western Pennsylvania is establishing for itself a decidedly unenviable reputation in the way of murders. The readers of the daily newspapers are not more than satiated with the horrible details of one crime until another is recorded. Last Saturday Cambria county added another to the list. A man named John Sanders was murdered. It appears that men to the number of a dozen or more had congregated at Portage Station, and during the day imbibed freely of the liquid which steals away the brains. In the evening they met at a public house to continue the carousal, throughout the night. Before the morning hours had come a general row ensued and Sanders was stabbed four times. His injuries were so severe that he died at nine o'clock on Sunday morning. The quarrel is said to have resulted from an old family feud. The men who it is alleged did the cutting are named Carr and Cavanaugh. It chanced that the Philadelphia Express east was wrecked at Portage Station Saturday night, and was obliged to lie over at that point for five hours. Sheriff Bonacker was on the wrecked train. He was notified that a man had been cut, and calling to his aid a posse proceeded to effect the arrest of the alleged criminals. They were found at their boarding house, near by, and made no resistence to the arrest. The Sheriff conveyed them to Ebensburg the same night, where they were placed in jail to await a hearing. Sanders, the victim of the affray, was a resident of Munster township, Cambria county. He was about forty-five years of age and the father of a promising family.

A FOUNDRY BURNED.

Fire on Penn Avenue Yesterday Morning—Ives & Shook's Foundry Destroyed—Another Building Damaged—The Loss and Insurance.

At about half past three o'clock yesterday morning flames were discovered issuing from the building No. 832 Penn avenue, occupied by Messrs. Ives & Shook, as a foundry. An alarm from box 62 was sounded and the fire department was promptly on the ground. The flames resisted the efforts of the firemen for some time, and the building in which it originated, a two story iron clad, was completely destroyed. The building adjoining, No. 831, a three story brick, owned and occupied by Mr. Henry Otto, as a tailoring establishment and dwelling was also considerably damaged by water.

The following are the estimated losses and insurance:

Messrs. Ives & Shook lose on building $3,000, and on machinery about $1,000, which is covered by an insurance of $4,400. $1,700 of which is in the Aetna and $2,700 in the Orient, both of Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Otto's loss by fire and water will amount to about $1,000 on house, stock and fixtures, which is covered by an insurance of $14,200, divided between the Allemania, German and Germania of this city.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary, as there was no fire in the establishment at the time from which the conflagration might have originated.

The Pennsylvania Railroad recently advanced their rates on coke from the P. W. & B. Road, and in retaliation the latter reduced its eastern freights down to the lowest notch, which will necessitate a heavy reduction by the other line. Shippers enjoy the situation.

····The Pleasant Valley Railway Company brought a suit, before Alderman D. L. Smith, of Allegheny, against John Boyd, for obstructing their track, which has been decided in their favor. Mr. Boyd had a wagon break down on their track, last summer, on which was loaded an immense anvil which could not be removed for several days. The amount sued for was but $60 87. The case will probably be appealed.

····Archie McLean and William Armstrong set sail from Titusville, on Tuesday, in a flat boat made for their special purpose, twenty-three feet long and five feet wide. Their destination is Texas. They will stop at Pittsburgh for provisions and other supplies, and then float down the Ohio and Mississippi to the Red river, which they will ascend to their point of destination. They will there go into the business of herding and stock raising, making Texas their permanent home.

····The Temperance Alliance held a meeting at their rooms yesterday morning and passed a resolution requesting temperance men to attend the primaries and see that proper delegates were sent to the County Conventions in June. The Alliance also adopted the report of the Committee on Funds, which recommended that the branch alliances endeavor to secure annual subscriptions to be paid in a certain month during each year, and that all contributions of a dollar and upwards be noted in the paper published by the Alliance.

····Captain Samuel Fullwood is authorized to receive subscriptions in this city for a monument to be erected to the memory of Colonel Ellsworth. Two thousand dollars has already been subscribed, and that amount is to be increased to $3,200. There are but four of the original Ellsworth Zouaves now residing in this city. They are Major N. P. Guthrie, Capt. M. W. W. Batchelor, Captain S. S. Fullwood and Charles Holyland. As yet Pittsburgh has contributed nothing toward the Ellsworth monument fund, but no doubt she will come up as handsomely as other cities.

····The body of a man was found floating in the river at Wheeling last Saturday morning, the face bore marks of violence, evidently inflicted with a handy billy and sufficient to cause instant death, which leads to the suspicion of foul play. The body evidently had been in the water for eight or ten days. The Coroners' inquest developed nothing new, but later inquiries revealed circumstances that indicated the body to be that of John Raymond, of Marietta, Ohio, who had been in the city a couple of weeks before, and had $600 in his pocket. He was a temperate, peaceable man, and the theory is, he was murdered, robbed, and thrown into the river.

····The committee of the G. A. R. appointed to make arrangements for the South Side for Decoration Day, met yesterday morning at the hall at the corner of Fourteenth and Carson streets. It was decided to start the procession on Memorial Day at eight o'clock, A. M. sharp, the procession to form on Seventeenth street, right resting on Sarah street, to proceed as follows: Up Sarah to Thirtieth street, down Thirtieth to Carson, along Carson to Brownsville road, thence to Zimmerman's graveyard, thence to the other South Side cemeteries. The following committees were appointed: On Music—Col. I. Cline, W. F. Willick, W. D. Jones. On Flowers—Joseph Fisher, W. McDonald, Col. Cline, W. F. Willick, Thomas Miller. On Marking Graves—Thomas Miller, W. D. Reiff. Another meeting will be held on Friday evening next at Alderman Hoerr's office.

A HOME ENTERPRISE.

A Ramble Through the Extensive Iron and Steel Works of Messrs. Reese, Graff & Woods—What we Saw—Improvements and Increased Facilities—An Enterprising Firm—An Interesting Exhibit of a Noted Firm.

Pittsburgh enterprise has become noted over the entire world, its manufactories of iron and steel having gained a reputation second to none in almost every part of the known habitable globe. Among one of the most enterprising firms in this line may be mentioned Messrs. Reese, Graff & Woods, whose extensive manufactories and mills cover over seven acres of ground, at the foot of Thirty-second street, on the Allegheny river. Their manufacturing includes making iron direct from the ore into pig metal, then through its various processes into the puddling furnaces, and then merchantable and bar iron and rails. But their facilities do not stop here, for they make merchant steel under the Siemen (English) patents, and by its process are enabled to manufacture a steel equal to any made.

The firm has lately been augmented by Mr. Woods, who is the pioneer in this country in the manufacture of steel. It was he and Mr. Isaac Jones who commenced its manufacture as early as 1845, since which time he has been engaged extensively in the manufacture of steel. Mr. Woods, while he brings into the firm ripe experience, also brings with him indomitable energy and enterprise, and his accession to the firm can not help but place it still higher in public estimation.

Messrs. Reese, Graff & Woods are making extensive improvements to their works and adding largely to their facilities of manufacture. Among them may be mentioned: Two Siemen (patent) twenty-four pot furnaces, exclusively for the manufacture of crucible steel; a four thousand pound hammer, for forging the largest steel forgings and manufacturing bar steel; this hammer it is said will be the largest in the city for the purpose intended. This hammer is in addition to two immense hammers already in operation. They also expect to have two more added by fall, one fifteen hundred and the other seven hundred pounds, for small castings.

The firm now run on steel, day and night, one large twelve inch train, one twenty-two inch and one nine inch. These are exclusively for the manufacture of German and Crucible cut steel. They make a T rail from twelve to thirty pounds to the yard. The firm also manufacture merchant iron of all sorts, and of a quality unsurpassed in tensile strength. They run on iron seven trains, which is accomplished by fourteen engines of immense power. The works of this stupendous concern are surrounded by their own railroad tracks, and this, in addition to the river, gives them unsurpassed facilities for loading and unloading ore, iron and coal, and getting them into their immense works without the additional expense of extra labor, drayage, etc., which is no small item to be considered. We omitted to mention that the firm is also manufacturing eight tons of horse shoes a day and that they have erected two forty tons converting furnaces for carbonizing iron, and also that they are engaged largely in the manufacture of shingle strips, which they make a specialty. They turn out of them, some three tons a day. The firm is now putting four new boilers in their steel works and expect this fall to make several more extensive additions to this already immense department of their works. From the above brief sketch it will be seen, that in regard to facilities of manufacture, this firm stands second to none in the United States and dealers of course looking to their own interests will judge accordingly.

NOT HIS COMPANY.

The Gas Man Obstreperous—He Rises to Explain—A Fearful Epistolary Effort—An Outburst of His Virtuous Indignation.

That gentle, timid creature, the gas man, has for once been stirred up, yea, aroused to an interesting phrenzy of virtuous indignation, because a few of the Pittsburgh papers ventured to suggest that perhaps his little bills, rendered with such unvarying punctuality, were of a slightly (we hope he will not be offended) exorbitant character. Perhaps, however, if the suggestion had been quietly made without the support of a few awkward figures, his fierce wrath would not have been so thoroughly aroused. But "aye, there's the rub." The figures as given in an article in relation to the matter, published by the GAZETTE recently, seem to have been the last straw that broke the back of his forbearance. With rare sagacity, however, knowing his own weakness, he carefully avoids a direct attack by his own forces, but calls to his aid his ally, who thus comes up to the rescue in gallant and self-explanatory style:

CLEVELAND, O., April 26, 1873.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

I noticed in your daily of Thursday the 24th inst. a statement purporting to have been made by Roland H. Smith, to the effect that he had often looked into the books of a gas company of this city, and that gas cost said company only thirty cents per thousand feet. There are two (2) gas companies in this city. If Mr. Smith made any such statement in regard to the books and business of this company, which I doubt, permit me to say that his pretence, that he ever saw inside of our books, is unqualifiedly false, and, that his statement that gas costs us only thirty cents per thousand is preposterously absurd.

Respectfully,
W. H. PRICE, Prest.,
Cleveland Gas Light & Coke Co.

Perhaps we would have remained in a state of happy unconsciousness of such an outburst of wrath, but for the tender and sympathetic interest taken by the gas man in the matter, to whom we owe a thousand thanks for his efforts first to get the epistolary effusion—to get it "strong" and next to transmit it to us; and feeling overwhelmed with such a display of kindness upon his part, our representative deemed it but reciprocal to investigate the matter again. Happily he was favored by finding Mr. Smith, our worthy Gas Inspector "at home" and affable as ever.

"You remember our little interview on gas," said our representative in an inquiring way.

"Oh yes," was the reply, "it was all right."

"Well, what Cleveland Company, was that you had reference to as I noted," was asked in persuance of further information.

"The People's. But why? Anything up."

"Oh, no, except that an interested party has gotten obstreperous."

"Is that so? I'm glad they are stirred up. Perhaps it will do some good."

"I hope so too, for I tried to put the facts you gave me where they'd do the most good. You read the 'interview'—was it correct?"

"Perfectly correct as to the facts of our conversation."

"Well the Pittsburgh Gas Company men, sent us a letter, received from the Cleveland Gas Company—in which they deny they ever allowed you to look at their books."

"Yes, but you didn't mention any company, and I didn't either. What you said was correct. I don't recollect of any mention of the 'Cleveland.'"

"Can gas be made at Cleveland for thirty cents a thousand?"

"Yes sir; that is exclusive, of course, of the interest on their investment. I don't suppose they want to count in as expense a big interest on that, and then ask a heavy profit additional."

"I don't know what they want to count in, but they're very sensitive. I wish they were so about 'bill time,'" said our representative as he turned away followed by the echo of the Inspector's assurance that the "original statement was correct." There was just a shade of sadness tempering the satisfaction from this assurance—a sadness superinduced by the fact that the result of the interview would not be conducive to serenity in the gas man's feelings. We would, if we could, scatter oil upon the troubled waters of the gas man's soul—if he has any—but this can only be done by the unfortunate sufferer himself; the remedy for his nervous fluttering every time the subject is mentioned, can only be found in the exercise of less rapacity in making out his bills.

IONIA.

Free Excursion—The Great Western Band—Free Lunch—Beautiful Site for a Town—Splendid Surroundings—Three Hundred and Twenty-five Lots for Sale—Board Walks Along Every Street—75,000 Feet of Lumber Used in Making Them—The Only Lots for Sale in Allegheny County Where the Streets are Graded and Walks Laid—Good Terms to Purchasers—Sale on Wednesday, May 21.

Among the many pleasant and attractive places along the rivers and railroads in the vicinity of the city, places where the most romantic disposition would be content, none are more delightfully situated and better calculated for comfortable and pleasant residences than Ionia. The place has lately been laid out by Mr. A. H. Rowand, Jr., and is situated in the borough of Verona, on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, ten miles from the city. It is the first place on the river above Lawrenceville where there is room enough between the river and the hill for a town to be built.

THE SURROUNDINGS.

In many respects it is the finest location for several miles along the course of the river. The level bottom is wide, and the hills back of it are low and sloping, not high and rugged, as at most other points. There are now three churches only a short distance from the station, and another is soon to be erected. There is also a large and well-furnished school-house within a few minutes' walk. Immediately opposite, on the north side of the river, is the village of Montrose. Sufficient stock has already been taken to build an iron bridge between the two points, and the engineers have located it at the foot of Allegheny avenue, the main thoroughfare in this plan of lots.

THE ADVANTAGES.

These are numerous, and cannot all be given in a short article like this. But among the rest may be mentioned the location of the within less than five minutes' walk of the most distant lot in the plan. These shops will be the largest and most complete west of the mountains, and will necessarily employ a large number of hands. These lots are the only ones remaining unsold within considerable distance of the works, and from their very desirable location will form the principal business centre of the town. For this reason they commend themselves to those who may wish to take advantage of the great trade that will necessarily be brought here. Mr. Arch H. Rowand, Jr., has already graded the streets, and laid a very solid and substantial board walk along each one, using over are three hundred and twenty-five in number, and are situated in one of the most beautiful river bottoms within a long distance of the city. Should any one want a "garden spot" in connection with their home, no spot better suited could be found. They are all twenty-five by one hundred feet in size, except those fronting on the river, which run from one hundred to two hundred feet in depth. There are three avenues—Railroad, Penn and Arch—running the whole length of the plan, besides a twenty-foot alley. The cross streets, or avenues, Sheridan Allegheny, Fairview and Grant, are uniform in width (fifty feet) with the others.

75,000 FEET OF LUMBER.

THE LOTS

IONIA STATION.

A neat station house has been erected, at which stopping a short distance above at the shops. The distance from the city is about ten miles, the schedule time being less than forty-five minutes. Trains will pass here every hour during the day, giving those whose business is in the city the most favorable opportunities for traveling back and fourth. Monthly tickets will be sold at low rates, making the traveling expenses but little more than street car fare in the city.

ALL MAIL AND ACCOMMODATION TRAINS WILL STOP, EXPRESS AND FAST LINES

THE EXCURSION.

A special train has been engaged to leave the Union Depot at precisely nine o'clock, city time, on the day of sale, which will carry free of charge, all who may wish to attend. The other regular trains will stop also. For the purpose of enlivening the occasion, the Great Western Band has been engaged to accompany the excursion. A free lunch will be provided on the grounds to cheer the inner man.

TERMS.

The terms of sale are one-fourth cash, balance in three equal annual payments, with interest, secured by bond and mortgage, twenty dollars to be paid on each lot at time of sale. This is a much better way than the monthly and quarterly plans, as very many mechanics and others can testify. These lots were laid out by Mr. Arch. H. Rowand, Jr., simply because they were the best in the vicinity, and the demand for them so great. It would be well enough for all who wish to buy to go up on the day of sale, and it is probable they will go off rapidly.

None of the Lots will be sold at private sale until after the auction, thus giving all an equal chance for the choice, and none will be sold for the purpose of "holding for a rise."

THE SALE WILL COMMENCE AT TEN O'CLOCK, ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, 1873.

The train leaves the Union Depot at nine o'clock, A. M., stopping for intending purchasers at Lawrenceville, Sharpsburg, Brilliant and Sandy Creek. Regular trains leave at 9:40 A. M., and 11:50 A. M., stopping at all stations.

Purity and Reliability.

Our city friends are indeed fortunate in having in their midst such a reliable establishment for the sale of pure liquors as that of Messrs. Dillinger & Stevenson, No. 57 Second avenue. They have had an experience ranging through a long series of years; their judgment in selecting is excellent, while their facilities are of the most extensive character. At their establishment will be found the very finest brands of imported and domestic liquors, whiskies, gins, brandies, &c.—all grades of German and native wines. That these gentlemen deal strictly in standard brands is too well known to require proof, and their present stock is fully in keeping with, and even ahead of, their previous reputation in this respect. Heads of families and those of the general public who may desire pure liquors for medicinal purposes will find the stock of Messrs. Dillinger & Stevenson all we have represented. We commend this house to the favorable notice of our readers.

Remember the place, No. 57 Second avenue.

MRS. MARY NATKINS yesterday, lodged an information before Alderman Mercer of the South Side, charging her son John with disorderly conduct, in attempting to forcibly break up housekeeping, a proceeding very much against his mother's will. A warrant was issued.

PATRICK HANLON has made an information before Alderman Taylor, charging Mrs. Armstrong with gross disorderly conduct and a surety of the peace. He alleges that she came into his house and called him and his wife vile epithets, and threatened to "get even" with him. Warrant issued.

McMasters charging several of the parties with assaulting him without cause or provocation. Warrants were issued for their arrest.

A CHILD'S PRESENCE OF MIND.

Narrow Escape of a Little Girl—She is Left in a Buggy and the Horse Runs Away—A Driver's Carelessness—Rescued Unhurt.

Last evening about half-past five o'clock Mr. James McBrier, President of the Allegheny Common Council, residing on Montgomery avenue near Sandusky street, sent his hostler to the stable to hitch up his horse to his buggy. The man did as requested and in the yard placed a little girl between two and three years of age in the vehicle, and then hitched up. He drove the child around the yard and down the alley and back. He left the horse standing unhitched with the little girl in the buggy. As soon as he had left, the animal ran away, darting down Sandusky street at a terrible pace. A young man who saw the frightened animal and the little girl in the buggy, ran in front of the horse and endeavored to stop it, but he was knocked down by the horse and severely cut and bruised about the face. He, however, checked the horse so, that he was easily caught, shortly after. The little child had a miraculous escape. She had laid down in the bottom of the buggy as soon as the horse started, and had sufficient presence of mind to remain in this position and hold on to the irons on the bottom of the carriage, and thus saved her life. The carelessness of the colored man deserves the severest censure.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Last evening Mr. J. E. Irving, for his benefit, was greeted with a crowded house. The bill given was an unusually attractive one, including several scenes from "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the farce of "Bounce Him," and the drama of "Dick Turpin," surely enough for one night. The plays, one and all were rendered with satisfaction, the children Nellie and Hattie Irving drawing vociferous applause for their unique and original acting of "Topsey" and "Eva" respectively. After the farce of "Bounce Him" had been given, Mr. Irving was called before the curtain and made a neat little speech, thanking the public for their kindness and liberality, especially upon this occasion, in showing their appreciation of his feeble efforts. He said he would be in Pittsburgh again next season, and hoped that he merited the applause so generously bestowed upon him. The play of "Dick Turpin" was then given with Mr. Irving as "Jackey." Taken in all the occasion was a most pleasant one, and the artist may flatter himself that in Pittsburgh true artistic merit does not go unrewarded. This evening the benefit bill will be repeated. To-morrow evening joint benefit of Messrs. Huntley and Stockwell.

Next Monday's Excursion is to North Homestead.

In the Twenty-second ward of the city, where you can take your choice of over forty DAILY trains on the Pennsylvania and Connellsville Railroads, to and from business centres. This fact should make property more valuable than at Hazelwood or East Liberty, where you can NEVER have but HALF the accommodation. But the company will close out their remaining lots at less than half the prices asked in these localities, for nine annual payments, WITHOUT INTEREST, give life insurance free, and let those who build mortgage their lots to other parties to pay for the buildings. Go and see other places, but don't buy until you have seen North Homestead.

Do You Know

that Messrs. J. Meyer & Son, Nos. 412 and 414 Penn street, east of railroad crossing, manufacture an article of furniture which is superior in all respects to that made by nine-tenths of furniture houses, either East or West? They do not enter into competition with the manufacturers of inferior or worthless furniture, choosing rather to manufacture an article that will commend itself. The also manufacture a very neat and very convenient bed sofa, which only needs to be seen to be appreciated, being in every respect superior to the old fashioned lounge-bed.

Yesterday's Sale at Homestead was a great success. The attendance was large and of a superior class, everybody was delighted with the trip, the town and the treatment they received at the hands of their entertainers. The sales aggregated something over $50,000, and were largely made to the personal friends of those who had previously bought and are now residents of this very delightful village. We are informed that this is the last public sale that will be had at Homestead, the company being indifferent about the sale of the few remaining lots.

FOR ALL LOCALITIES AND CLIMES.

A true specific is adapted to all localities and climes, and for this reason, that it strikes at the causative principle of the diseases which it is administered to cure. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, for example, is a true specific, not only because it fortifies the body against the external influences which prompts disease, but because, when taken as a remedy instead of as a preventive, it neutralizes the infective principle in the blood, and hereby destroys the primary source of the ailment. Hence as an antidote to epidemic disorders, and to all complaints which are produced or aggravated by miasma, or the presence of anything deleterious in the air, the water or the soil, it is as nearly infallible as any medicinal preparation can be. In our own country, as a remedy for intermittent fevers, bilious affections, constipation, dyspepsia, nervous weakness, rheumatism and general debility, it is unrivaled, nor is it less celebrated in the tropics as a preventive of malarious fevers.

A LEAP FOR FREEDOM.

A Convicted Horse Thief Chained and Hand-Cuffed Attempts to Escape by Jumping Through One of the Windows of an Express Train While Moving at the Rate of Thirty Miles an Hour—He is Recaptured and Lodged Safely in the Western Penitentiary.

An exciting incident occurred about five o'clock last evening on the express west to this city on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Deputy Sheriff McDonald, of Brookville, Jefferson county, having in his custody a horse thief named Frank Steine, who he was taking to the Western Penitentiary to serve a term of five years, was on board the train. He was sitting quietly along side of his prisoner who was hand-cuffed and had his legs chained together. On nearing Logan's Ferry, about eighteen miles from this city, the prisoner requested the officer to open the window along side of him and let him have some fresh air. As the train was running about thirty miles an hour at the time, the officer complied with his request and opened the window. But scarcely had he done so and sat down, when the prisoner made one leap and darted through the window, the officer catching his foot as he was going out, but he had to let him go. The bell was pulled and the train though it had been running very fast, was immediately stopped and the officer and conductor went back, expecting to find the mutilated corpse of their liberty-loving horse thief. But, their surprise was great when they saw him making tracks across lots (having jumped a fence) to some place of safety. They however overtook him and brought him back to the train and safely brought him to Allegheny where he was lodged safely under the shadow of the wings of Warden Wright.
